

Prizes and Judging

Prizes

Currently two major prizes of $20,000 each shall be awarded to the best essays selected by the judging panel

- The Babcock & Brown Power/Wind Partners Prize
- The Sumitomo Australia Prize

One prize of $5,000 may be awarded for the best essay selected by the Judging Panel which is written by an essayist (or essayists) under 22 years of age at the closing date of the competition.

Up to five prizes of $1,000 each may be awarded to essays selected by the judging panel as worthy of an 'Honourable Mention'

Further prizes may be awarded, including a 'People's Choice' prize of up to $10,000, may be awarded if additional sponsorship is obtained.

Judging

The Judging Panel shall consist of 7 members, including the Chairman. Current membership of the Judging Panel comprises

Mr. David S Clarke AO (Chairman)	Chairman, Macquarie Bank Limited
Professor Jill Trehwella (NSW)	ARC Federation Fellow and Professor, Molecular and Microbial Biosciences at the University of Sydney
Mr. Murray Meaton (WA)	President, Australian Institute of Energy
Dr. Peter Greenwood (Tas)	Past President, Institution of Engineers, Australia
Professor Paul Greenfield (Qld)	Vice Chancellor, University of Queensland
The Hon. Barry Jones AO (Vic)	Vice Chancellor's Fellow, University of Melbourne
Mr. Nick Palousis (SA)	Former Young South Australian of the Year

All essays shall be reviewed and judged anonymously, the entrants being identified only by their Unique Registration Number.

The Chairman and each Judge will have an equal vote

A simple majority will decide competition awards